EXCUSE MY GLOVE.

By Hal E. Roach. /

FEB -9 1925, /

The Spats arrange a boxing bout to aid the cause of charity. Ambrose, seeking the limelights glare, loses his ardor when he once sees his opponent, a burly roughneck. Feigning a broken arm, Tewksbury Spat is induced to substitute for him - and though distinctly outclassed by his more scientific opponent, his is aided materially by his wife, who, acting as timekeeper, saved him a knock-out by ringing the gong before the round is finished. Tewksbury, rising to the occasion, by a clever ruse, lands a lucky punch and wins the bout.
